TODAY'S MESSAGE:

"Where Do We Go From Here?"

Scripture: St. Mark 9:1-10
(New Revised Standard Version)

1 And he said to them, "Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see that the kingdom of God has come with power."

2 Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, 3 and his clothes became dazzling bright, such as no one on earth could brighten them. 4 And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. 5 Then Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us set up three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." 6 He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. 7 Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, "This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!" 8 Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

9 As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. 10 So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead could mean.

Sermon Notes

Through this incredible story we learn at least four things about Jesus that can help us to trust him more fully as we enter this sacred Lenten season together:

1.) Jesus is not just a human being, _____.

2.) Jesus is not just part of the story, _____.

3.) Jesus is not just another prophet, _____.

4.) Jesus is not just a teacher, _____.
